DEVELOPING LAUGH LINES

A church baritone singer was delighted when one of the members spoke to him after service and said, “You haver a very mellow voice.”

When he got home, he went directly to his dictionary and discovered a meaning of “mellow.” He read, “Mellow: overripe and almost rotten.”

At the close of the service, a visiting preacher remarked to the minister that he thought the singing was terribly poor and asked what the problem was. The home-team minister replied, “Yes, unfortunately the agnostics here are dreadful.”
